From the President

First, I would like to thank Clint Keller for all the hard work he did in staging this year's banquet. Clint stepped in with short notice as the Bowhunting Committee Chairman and spent many long hours making arrangements to assure that the banquet was held with everything running smoothly. He did a great job and I believe all those who attended had a great time. The only down side was that 73 people called to say they would attend but only fifty some came. We had to pay for 65 meals which mean the VBA will most likely lose money this year. This is unfortunate and, most likely; in the future tickets will have to be prepaid. I would also like to thank all those who donated items for the raffles; we had many nice things to give out which always makes for enjoyment for all. By the way, Clint is already getting ready for next years banquet and has many plans and ideas to make it the best to date.

A disturbing situation has happened this year. Augusta Archers have decided to hold a 3D shoot on the same weekend as the State Open. There was a lot of discussion about this at March meeting and the director's have decided to impose sanctions against Augusta Archers if they go ahead with this shoot. As I believe most members are aware, the weekends of the State Tournaments are reserved. As a state organization, the VBA works hard to support all of its affiliated clubs and memberships. The State Tournaments are one way the membership can help support your state organization and the hosting club. A lot of work goes into staging these tournaments for our members and all are encouraged to attend.

A club holding any kind of event can only potentially distract from the tournament rather than support it. There are no sanctions in our Bylaws to address this situation because it was never considered necessary. And I sincerely hope that none will ever be necessary.

With that said and considering the many articles that the officers have written in the past few issues of Flight, I sincerely hope that participation at our State Tournaments will be up this year and that many of you are making plans to attend. Anyway, I sure hope to see you out on the range!

From the Executive Vice President

From the Messy Desk of the Executive Vice President

Happy days, spring time is finally here after a hard winter, well I am sure it was a hard winter somewhere, it sure wasn't around here, the only bad weather we had was way back in October. But it is time to start thinking about the upcoming turkey season, 3-D season and Field tournament seasons even though some people are still playing the indoor games.

I would like to reflect on what has happened the past couple of months, the VBA Indoors and VBA awards banquet have both been a success this year. The Indoors championship had a very good turn out this year with some excellent scores shot and several state records broken. I shot at Augusta and really enjoyed myself and made some new friends along the way.

The VBA awards Banquet was held at the Keezletown Ruritan Club this year and I would like to thank the members of the Ruritan club for a very good meal and a wonderful place to hold a banquet. I would also like to thank all of the VBA members who attended the banquet and Clint Keller for all of the hard work to make this event happen. I would also like to thank Matt Knox of the VGDIF for being the guest speaker. Food was plentiful, awards handed out, door prizes were given out and even a new bow was given away, silent auction of a hunting trip and prints, all told it was a great evening.

With a great start to the year the next item on the agenda is the VBA 3-D SPRING CLASSIC being held at Singers Glen Bowbenders on April 14&15. I would really like to see a good turnout for this shoot since it is their first state shoot. The next event is the VBA STATE OPEN Championship being held May 26&27 at Sherwood Archers, this is a great range and if you have never shot there this is a great chance for you to take advantage of a great range. Both of these shoots are open shoots and if you have friends who have never been to a shoot before this is a great opportunity to introduce them to a great sport and also expose them to the VBA. And don't forget the local shoots all across the state, your local clubs need your support so go shoot and have a good time.

The next thing I need your help with has to do with my job as Flight editor, I need articles for upcoming flight editions. What I am looking for is your take on your experiences in the woods, on the range or just life in general. I know a lot of you go on hunting trips or to tournaments across the country and have stories to tell on yourself or better yet on someone else. So please take the time to write the stories of fun and success or failure and send them to me for a future edition. They don't have to be long tales, just something interesting. Just to prove to that you can write an article you have just read mine and if I can do it so can you.

From the NBEF/IBEP Director

Spring means turkey season, outdoor shoots and a host of other things. For IBEP instructors, it also means it is time to plan out your IBEP teaching schedule for this year, and get your classes loaded into the VDGIF Event Manager Web Site (<http://my.register-ed.com>). As you plan for this year's classes, I would ask that you put a focus on three areas.

First and foremost is safety. The biggest risk to our bowhunters continues to be falls. For that reason, the VDGIF is now offering certification in Treestand Safety. I am taking the class in March, and I strongly encourage all IBEP instructors to do the same, so you have the latest knowledge of risks and safety procedures to share in your classes. If your students don't remember anything else in the class, make sure they never forget how to safely hunt from whatever elevated stand they use.

Second, I would ask that you cover Crossbows as part of your curriculum. I know this is a very sensitive area for many bowhunters (some love them, some hate them), but the fact is that the National Bowhunter Education Foundation (NBEF) now includes them in the core teaching materials. They provide a supplemental addendum to the IBEP teaching material called "Today's Crossbow". Regardless of your personal position, as IBEP instructors it is our responsibility to thoroughly cover all of the material in the program. If you aren't a crossbow user yourself, take time to read the NBEF material and to familiarize yourself with crossbows so you can cover them in your classes.

Finally, please place a special emphasis on good shot selection. While giving a presentation to my local club, I was asked a question about wounding rates. When I researched the topic on the internet, I was extremely surprised at the wide variance in wounding rates being cited for bowhunting. On one hand, there are reports of wounding rates as high as 50% (and these are widely cited groups who oppose bowhunting). On the other hand, Fairfax County reported a low 4.32% wounding rate for bowhunters in the 2011-2012 season. The Fairfax County experience shows that it is possible to harvest large numbers of deer with very low wounding rates. A key success in this area is helping our students understand deer anatomy, shot selection, shot placement, and finally, that it is OK to let down if the shot isn't there. Let's help them make good, ethical choices in the woods.

Good Hunting!

Bob

From the Field Vice President

I would like to thank everyone that came out for the State Indoor. As of March the 15th the VBA membership count is up from last year. If each member would come out to support your state organization by attending just 1 state tournament this year, we could break attendance records, but more important and what I think the VBA does for me is the fellowship and don't forget the stories that are completely "true".

Last year we had several clubs that had increased their membership. Clubs don't survive with only a name on a membership form. The work parties are the best, if you call them work days you must have never attended one. Then the shoots and other events are another story. I can't explain it you'll have to try them on your own. Please don't forget to visit the other VBA clubs. I can't speak for all the clubs, but as for my home club, all past, present, future archers and visitors are treated as family "most times better than family".

Get out and go shoot, the weather is getting warm. Check your schedule card, just about every weekend there is somewhere to go. You will find new and different experiences each time you go to a range no matter which you may choose to attend.

I am looking for 1 or 2 people to be Range Inspectors from each club. I need Inspectors from: Belvoir, Buggs Island, Cub Run, Dixie, Kingsboro, Manahoac, Massanutten, New River, Rockingham, and Walton Park. Please let me know if you would like to be an Inspector.

Aubrey T. Self

From the Publicity Director

Greeting folks! Spring is here and earlier than expected. Now it's time to prepare for another year of exciting outdoor archery activities. Our clubs have already started their shoots, so make it a family outing or take a youngster and your friend(s) when you go or to another club shoots. Turkey season will soon be here, so get out to enjoy the woods and scout around. You never know what you may find!

The VBA would like to 'thank' the Augusta Archers, Belvoir Bowhunters, Kingsboro Bowmen and Sherwood Archers who hosted the State Indoor Championship; and, a fantastic turn out that it was! We had 159 archers that participated and 12 records broken. Also, much appreciation goes to those work-a-bees and others for their dedication and hard work they gave. The results and state records are posted on the VBA website and in this issue of FLIGHT.

We recently had our Seventeenth Annual Awards Banquet. To our disappointment, there were only 50 adults and three children that came. Everyone enjoyed each others company, the food and especially our guest speaker Matt Knox, VDGIF Deer Project Coordinator, who gave a wonderful presentation on deer management, population and kill, were its declining and why, and much more. Although Ed Bickham wasn't able to be there, Clint Keller and his buck and doe helpers work hard for our annual banquet. We would like to thank everyone and the clubs for their donations to the raffle prizes. By the way, Terry Ballowe won the PSE bow and Dave Proctor was the highest bidder for the Waccamaw hunt.

Recently, the VDGIF reported two new cases of chronic wasting disease (CWD) close to where CWD infected deer were found in 2009 and 2010. Both deer, a 4.5 year old buck and 1.5 year old doe were killed by a hunter in November 2011 in western Frederick county, VA. VDGIF submitted over 525 samples for CWD testing from deer brought to check stations, self-service drop stations or road kill. Also, 1,120 samples distributed over every county in the remainder of the state were submitted for CWD testing and no additional positives were found. As of March 12, 2012, CWD has been detected in 19 states and two Canadian provinces.

We have two VBA State Tournaments coming up, the Spring 3D Classic (marked) that will be hosted by Singers Glen Bowbenders on April 14th – 15th and the State Open hosted by Sherwood Archers on May 26th – 27th besides our clubs that will having their shoots. Contacts and directions to each club is on our website.

Lastly, I continue to work with the VDGIF and the CWF volunteers at sporting shows, Fish for Kids events and attending Advanced Training Workshops. I encourage and would love to see more of you to get involved in these activities that the VDGIF offers.

VBA BOWHUNTING COMMITTEE

This letter is being sent to the Virginia Bowhunters Association affiliate club's point of contacts and I request that they forward this on to all the members of their organization.

On behalf of the VBA and Bowhunting Committee we wish to thank everyone who attended the 17th Annual VBA Awards Banquet. We thank all the organizations and individuals who supplied items for the raffle and silent auction. Special thanks to WACCAMAW HUNTING SERVICES for donation of a hog hunt that was used in the silent auction. Another special thanks goes out to Mr. Matt Knox, Deer Project Coordinator with the VDGIF who put on an extremely interesting discussion about deer history and the program in Virginia. I for one could have listened to him for the whole night. Last but not least, a big hand and thank you to the fine men and women of the Keezletown Ruritan Club who made us feel more like family instead of guests in their "home". The place had been updated since our last visit and the food, well let's say, I have a lot of mountains to cover during spring gobbler season to work it off!! The VBA placemats were their contribution and what a surprising personal touch!

A Rose and two Thornes handing out door prizes

Rob Pecora and Clint Keller hand out Bill Bennet awards

I would like to thank the members who brought in the mounts and shared those with everyone. it was such a great thing to see the different animals and styles. Last but not least for this year's banquet, congratulations to everyone who won awards for their bow kills. Next year we hope to see more winners at the banquet to celebrate with us their success.

I urge each club to remind their members about the awards that can be received for their kills with archery equipment. Please look on the website for details or see one of your officers on the numerous awards you as members can receive for your personal success.

Before this banquet was held I was already making plans for the future and what can we do to bring to you the members something that would spark your interest and involvement. The VBA Bowhunting Committee is taking a look at things to brighten and keep our future secure. We are looking to bring things on board that we think may draw more member participation.

However we cannot do this alone. As I have put out before, we need your input! So, come to a club meeting; get with your representative; volunteer to be a member of the VBA/BHC; email me; call me; but get your voice heard and your ideas out there. So to show that we are sincere in offering you something of interest..... save the date for next year's banquet. Yes it has already been set! Saturday March 23, 2013 will be the date for the VBA Bowhunting Committee 18th Annual Award Banquet.

It is my extreme pleasure and honor to now announce that next year's guest speaker will be: FROM THE OUTDOOR CHANNEL'S DROP ZONE HUNTING TELEVISION SHOW, SHOW HOST, MR. HAL SHAFFER. So mark your calendar, save the date and keep an eye out for further details on the banquet. Come out and meet one of hunting's top personalities and share an evening of excitement and fellowship. We will be getting more information out to you about the banquet later in the year, but I wanted to share with everyone this exciting information. ♪
